

I have worked for Interactive Teleservices Corporation for about 7 years. This has been such a great job for me and for the people of Lincoln. We employ over 300 people just at this location, and if we would have to close our doors because of the new regulations it would put so many people out of a job and increase our welfare.